11. RIGHTS OF THE BANK: (a) The Bank shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of the Collateral if it takes such action for that purpose as Debtor shall request, but failure to honor any such request shall not of itself be deemed a failure to exercise reasonable care. The Bank shall not be required to take any steps necessary to preserve any rights in the Collateral against parties claiming an interest in the property prior in right to the Bank's interest nor to protect, preserve or maintain any security interest given to secure any of the Collateral. (b) Debtor hereby irrevocably appoints the Bank as the attorney of the Debtor, upon an Event of Default occurring, with full powers of substitution and at the cost and expense of Debtor, to exercise any of the following powers with respect to any of the Accounts: (i) demand, sue for, collect and give receipts for any payments due thereon or by virtue thereof; (ii) receive, take,

To take possession the Bank may enter upon any premises and remove the Collateral therefrom. If notice is required by law, five days prior to notice of the time and place of any public sale or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition thereof is to be made shall be deemed reasonable notice to Debtor. No such notice is necessary if the Collateral is perishable, threatens to decline speedily in value, or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market. Proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Collateral may be applied to the Obligations in any order of priority. (b) As a supplemental or additional remedy, the Bank shall also be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, (i) to hold, use, operate, manage and control all or any part of the Collateral; (ii) to demand, collect and retain all earnings, proceeds and other sums due or to become due with respect to the Collateral, accounting only for the net earnings arising from such use and charging against receipts from such use all other costs, expenses, charges, damage or loss by reason of such use, and (iv) to exercise or continue to exercise all of the rights granted to the Bank in paragraph 11. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Bank shall also be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to have a receiver appointed to take charge of all or any part of the Collateral, exercising all of the rights granted to the Bank in this paragraph. 14. GENERAL: (a) No default shall be waived by the Bank except in writing and no waiver of any payment or other right under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any other payments or right. (b) Without affecting any obligations of Debtor under this Agreement without notice or demand, the Bank may renew, extend, or otherwise change the terms and conditions of any of the Obligations, take or release any other Collateral as security for any of the Obligations, and add or release any guarantor, endorser, surety or other party to any of the Obligations. (c) The Bank may assign, transfer or deliver any of the Collateral to any transferee of any of the Obligations, and thereafter shall be fully discharged from all responsibility with respect to such Collateral, but the Bank shall retain all powers and rights hereunder with respect to any of the Collateral remaining. (d) This Agreement may be terminated by either party upon ten days prior written notice to the other but such termination shall be effective only as to new Obligations of Debtor subsequently incurred; as to transactions entered into, rights or interests created or Obligations created or arising (and refinancings, renewals, modifications, amendments and extensions thereof, if any), prior to such termination, this Agreement shall remain fully effective as if such termination had not occurred. (e) Any consent of the Bank and any notice or other communication from Debtor required or contemplated by this Agreement shall be in writing. Any written notice intended for Debtor shall be deemed given if mailed, postage prepaid to Debtor at the address given on the first page of this Agreement or at such other address given by notice as herein provided. If intended for the Bank notice shall be deemed given only if actually received by the Bank. Delivery by the Bank to any Debtor of any of the Collateral shall discharge the Bank from any further liability or responsibility therefor. (g) This Agreement shall be construed under and governed by the substantive laws of Colorado without reference to choice of law rules, including Colorado's, and Debtor hereby consents to personal jurisdiction in and agrees that any litigation in any way related to this Agreement shall be brought and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction sitting in the City and County of Denver and no where else. (h) Except as modified by this Agreement and unless the context otherwise requires, all terms used herein which are defined in the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in Colorado shall have the meanings therein stated, (i) All of the rights of the Bank under this Agreement shall be cumulative and shall inure to the benefit of its successors and assigns. All obligations of Debtor hereunder shall be binding upon the heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns of Debtor.

15. CONTINUING GRANT: The Debtor expressly intends that the grant of this security interest shall remain as security for payment and performance of all future loans made pursuant to the Letter Agreement.
